SUBJECT: EOP – 2008 Women and Money Conferences

Purpose: To provide employees with information on upcoming 2008 Women and Money Conferences

Expiration Date: September 30, 2008

All employees may attend, with prior supervisory approval, one of the 2008 Women and Money Conferences being held in West Virginia. They are scheduled for May 9 in Morgantown at the Waterfront Place Hotel, from 8:00 a.m.-Noon, in Huntington on September 19 at the Pullman Plaza Hotel from 8:00 a.m.-Noon, and in Parkersburg on October 17 at the Grand Pointe Conference Center from 8:00 a.m.-Noon. Please attend the training conference held closest your work duty station. Employees are also approved to use a GOV for travel to and from these conferences.

The conference will feature breakout sessions and a two-hour presentation by keynote speaker Dee Lee. Ms. Lee is a nationally known financial speaker and author, and is often consulted as an expert for TV and radio stations across the country. She is a regular contributor to CNBC's Morning Call, CNN and ABC's evening news. Ms. Lee will help you put a financial plan into place and get your financial life in order. She covers the financial roles women assume during their lives: wife, divorcee, widow, mother, daughter, or partner.

Each conference program also includes a continental breakfast and luncheon.
